Fireside sweeps twinbill from the Yankees

In Lancaster Parks and Recreation 37 and Over softball the Fireside Inn used a big second inning in both ends of a doubleheader to pick up 2 victories over the GBP-Yankees and move into first place. Game one turned into a slugfest with the Inn prevailing 30-19, a 13 run second was too much for the GBP to overcome. Jim Banasik picked up the win on the mound while going 5-6 with 5 RBI, Larry Jarmuz added 4 hits and 5 RBI.

In game two the Fireside made quick work out of the GBP scoring 19 runs in the second and walked away with a 25-1 victory. Jerry Landahl homered and doubled twice knocking in 4 runs, while Paul Batt drove in 6 runs for the Inn.

In other 37 and Over action:

Frank's Falcons 13

Guzzlers 6

Frank's picked up a much needed win in the playoff race as Jeff Payne and Ed Gerth combined for 6 hits driving 8 runs. Jeff Sowinski was simply outstanding defensively for the Falcons.
